

DEPARTMENT OF GEOGRAPHY AND RESOURCE MANAGEMENT
THE CHINESE UNIVERSITY OF HONG KONG
HKDSE Seminar for Geography Teachers and Students

Date: 19 November 2022 (Saturday)

Time: 10:30am - 11:45am

Format: Webinar

Programme Rundown

10:30am – 10:45am Introduction

10:45am – 11:45am Seminar talk by Professor MARAFA Lawal Mohammed on “Understanding the Sustainable Development Goals (SDGs) and the Role that Geography can Play in Achieving Success” (in English)

Outline

- The following topics will be covered:

1. Evolution of sustainable development and the coming of the SDGs
2. Localizing the SDGs on a geographical scale
3. Relationship of human activities with the SDGs
4. Influence of the physical and human processes in achieving the SDGs:
Relevant examples
5. The urban system as an example of connecting the SDGs and geography (SDG 11 and others)
6. Identify issues and understand the appropriate role of geography in achieving the SDGs