The International Conference on Sustainable Tourism for Inclusive Growth

The International Conference on Sustainable Tourism is an annual event organized by the CUHK since 2012. The 2022 conference adopts the theme of “Sustainable Tourism for Inclusive Growth”, which echoes the focus of UNWTO’s World Tourism Day 2021: Tourism for Inclusive Growth. The conference aims to continue to reinforce the already established reunion of international, regional and local tourism academics including scholars, researchers, experts, practitioners and students to address the next move of sustainable tourism in recovery and development.

Date 20 May 2022 (Fri) Time 09:30 - 18:00 Format Online via Zoom Language English

Conference Topics

The Conference Organizing Committee welcomes contributions to any topical areas in the field of tourism research, and is particularly seeking contributions to the following areas:

- Engaging more local people and communities in tourism recovery and development
- Ensuring sustainable resource management by tourism
- Promoting well-being and quality of life by tourism for more people, especially the vulnerable groups
- Advocating sustainable tourism education and training for professional and workers in tourism industry
- Achieving gender equality, accessibility of people with disabilities, and empowerment of minorities in tourism development
- Considering natural resources, species and biodiversity in land and water in tourism development, and the impacts of man-made disasters on the ecosystems
- Promoting equitable post-crisis sustainable economic growth in tourist destinations
- Building resilience, inclusivity and innovation in tourism for both the industry level and the destination context
- Reducing inequality and overdependence in tourism development
- Improve the preparedness of tourism industry, destinations and communities
- Integrating sustainable cities and tourism
- Ensuring sustainable consumption and production patterns in tourism
- Combating climate change and its impacts on sustainable tourism
- Addressing the issues of environmental equity and climate justice
- Protecting, restoring and promoting sustainable use of terrestrial and marine ecosystems in tourism development
- Promoting peaceful and inclusive societies for tourism development at all levels
